

QUEST

UNIVERSITY CANADA WEB SERVICES

Username and password was provided to you as part of your admissions process.

Login Credentials for All services:

Your Quest username

Your Quest password

WEBMAIL - Email

What?

Your Quest e-mail account. All communication from tutors and staff members will come through your Quest webmail account.

When?

You should be checking your Quest e-mail at least once per day.

Link: webmail.questu.ca

PORTAL - Activity and Resource Management

What?

The portal is the central on-line hub for information at Quest. The portal has a calendar of on-campus events and links to important forms (ex. medical leave). Via the portal, you can sign-up for an appointment with a counsellor or physician.

When?

When you need to find information, complete a form, or see what is happening on-campus. Typically, students may check the portal once per week.

Link: portal.questu.ca

MOODLE – Course Management

What?

An e-Learning platform. Tutors will post syllabi, assignments, and other important class information on Moodle. Students will, typically, be able to access their Moodle content the first day of class.

When?

Typically, students should check their course Moodle every day.

Link: moodle.questu.ca

SELF-SERVE – Course Management

What?

Students' personal information is all housed on Self-Serve. This is where students can manage their profile, view their financial information, register/change classes, and so on.

When?

Students should be checking Self-Serve about once per week, at least.

Link: selfserve.questu.ca

Campus Living Portal (a.k.a. StarRez) – Residence Life

What?

StarRez, which is our Campus Living Portal, is where students can manage their housing, food services, parking, and other non-academic services.

When?

Students should log in to StarRez as needed, but in particular to select their housing in March (returning students) and July (incoming students), and to register their vehicle when they have it on campus.

Link: starrez.questu.ca

PRINTING

What?

How you print documents at quest.

When?

Anytime you need to print papers, forms or assignments

Link: print.questu.ca

LIBRARY

What?

Where you can do research

When?

Anytime

Link: lib.questu.ca