

The Great Howe Sound Recovery

Howe Sound is home to vibrant communities, strong economies and stunning nature which attracts locals and visitors alike. Join us to watch four original short films about sponge reefs, marine trails, salmon returns, and forage fish -- and to learn more about the ongoing recovery of Howe Sound and how you can take part in the region's rebound.

- PANELISTS:
- | | |
|------------------------|---|
| Maya Broeke | Quest University student and researcher on Howe Sound's marine recovery |
| Bob Turner | Geologist and former mayor of Bowen Island |
| John Buchanan | Environmentalist and citizen scientist |
| Jessica Schultz | Research coordinator, Vancouver Aquarium's Howe Sound Research & Conservation Group |
- DATE: Thursday, October 6, doors open at 6:30pm
- LOCATION: Multi-Purpose Room (University Services Building)
3200 University Blvd., Squamish
- TICKETS: $5 general admission, students free
Register online at howesound.eventbrite.ca

David
Suzuki
Foundation

QUEST
UNIVERSITY
CANADA