

THE BLOCK PLAN

Does the concept of juggling several different subjects all at once while taking multiple classes everyday sound exhausting? Trust us, it is.

We believe education should look different in today's rapidly changing world. At Quest, students focus on only one class every three and a half weeks. After that, they get the benefit of a four-day break before they commence with their next class.

This model of learning, known as the Block Plan, allows students to master content and application, diving deep into each subject with a class of no more than 20 students. We don't offer fluff classes at Quest. Each course was carefully designed to fit with the next, no matter which courses you take or in what order. This ensures you maximize your ability to learn as you build an educational experience as unique as you.

We get it, this is different – but isn't it time for university education to be a little different?

BLOCK BREAK

Every Block ends with a four-day weekend. This is your time to re-energize before the next Block begins. Relax, work on a creative project, or go on an adventure. The choice is yours!

BENEFITS

-  FLEXIBLE—

THE BASICS

1 BLOCK—

Each Block runs for 3.5 weeks and is equal to one course in a traditional semester

8 BLOCKS—

You'll typically take 8 Blocks per year

3 HOURS—

Classes meet each weekday from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. or 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

32 BLOCKS—

You need 32 Blocks to graduate

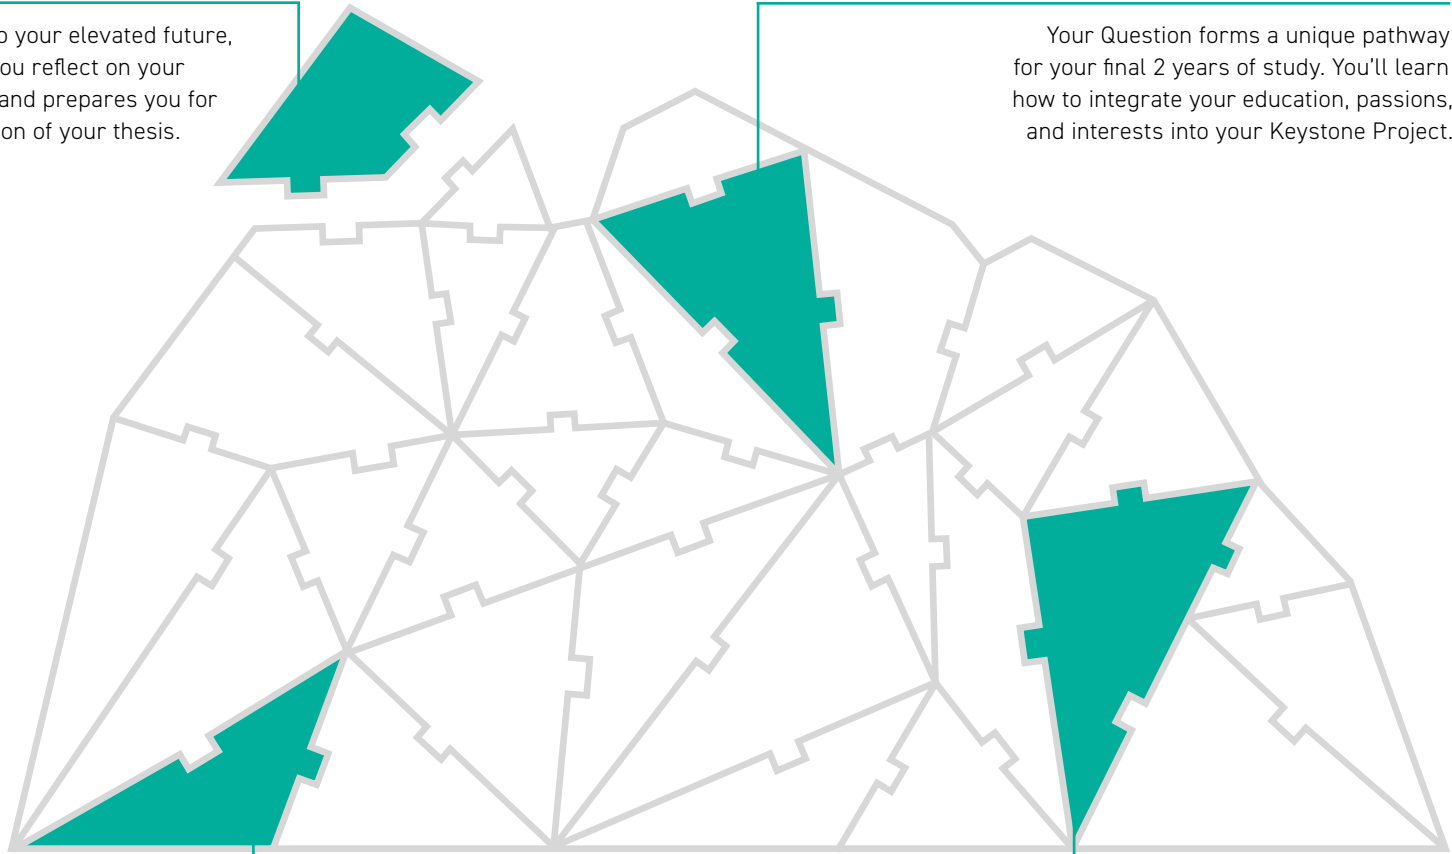

While most courses are up to you, there are four courses every student must take to graduate.

KEYSTONE (THESIS)

Before launching into your elevated future, this final block lets you reflect on your educational journey and prepares you for the public presentation of your thesis.

QUESTION (SPECIALIZATION)

Your Question forms a unique pathway for your final 2 years of study. You'll learn how to integrate your education, passions, and interests into your Keystone Project.

CORNERSTONE

Your journey starts by exploring your assumptions about the foundations of knowledge itself. You'll gain fundamental skills and perspectives that will position you for success in all subsequent studies.

RHETORIC

Communicating your ideas deftly is an essential skill in both life and university. You will be thoroughly equipped to make persuasive written, verbal, and visual arguments.
