About the Role

Quest University Canada is seeking a part-time Manager, Counselling and Health Services to join our Student Life Team from August 15, 2022 to April 28, 2023. This term position, with possibility for renewal, is responsible for coordinating counselling and health services on campus, which are part of Quest's integrated student affairs and services area, to provide exceptional and individualized support to students. The Manager must be able to provide culturally sensitive individual and group counselling, assessment, and crisis intervention services to students presenting with personal, emotional, and mental health issues, and adjustment and developmental issues. The Manager will supervise and mentor the counselling interns, coordinate counselling services logistics, such as scheduling and outreach, and liaise with and refer students to other services and resources within the University or to agencies/programs in the community, such as local health care providers, as needed, to coordinate treatment. This position must coordinate administrative duties such as scheduling, billing, insurance, etc. for doctors and psychiatrists who come on campus to provide services to students and conduct counselling intake meetings and triaging. The Manager will develop and facilitate sessions for new students/parents during Orientation that help students adjust to university life and be successful and provide training to residence staff and student leaders. Irregular hours and extended workdays may be required.
